No. L. 1597—Ml. 113-33-1, Dated, Bangalore, 2nd September 1933.

In exercise of the powers vested under the provisions of section 106 (2) (k) and (l) of the Mysore Minor Municipalities Regulation, 1933, and all other powers in this behalf, the following rules for regulating the construction of buildings in minor municipalities are made by the Government :—

1. Every person who shall erect any building or alter or add to any existing building or reconstruct any building shall apply in writing to the President for a license.

2. The application shall be accompanied by a site plan of the land on which the structure is proposed to be built and shall show the size of the proposed building and its position on the land, together with its position with reference to the adjoining sites or buildings or private or public roads and lanes.

3. No foundation of a new building intended for human occupation shall be constructed on a site which has been filled up with or used as a place for depositing excrementitious matter or the carcasses of dead animals or other filthy or offensive matter until such matter shal have been properly removed to the satisfaction of the President or shall, in his opinion, have become innocuous.

4. No pits shall be excavated in the sites allotted or used for building dwelling houses.

5. No building site shall be surrounded by a hedge of lantana, aloe, prickly-pear or other objectionable plant or by a fence of barbed wire.

6. The eaves of buildings, sun-shades of windows and water spouts to drain roof water shall not project beyond the side street drain adjoining the houses and the spouts shall be led down to the ground.

7. No sun-shade for shops either temporary or permanent shall be erected beyond the outer edge of the side drain of the road.

8. Every house shall have a decent frontage and no perishable or inflammable materials shall be used for construction.

9. Houses shall be built so as to leave sufficient open space for ventilation all round the building, and suitable provision shall also be made for adequate lighting and ventilation of every room or apartment thereof.

10. The minimum height of every room intended to be inhabited in a building except a room in the first or higher floors thereof shall not be less than eight feet from the floor to the ceiling.

11. No shops or market place, manufactory or place of public resort shall be built in the midst of the localities intended for residential purposes. For the purpose of this rule it shall be competent to the President of the municipal council to determine what is the residential area and what is not.

12. No person shall construct over a privy, whether new or old, any room or structure of any description except another privy or a bathing place or bath room.

13. The time limit for the license granted under these rules shall be one year.

14. Every person who shall commit a breach of any of the foregoing rules shall, on conviction before a Magistrate, be punishable with fine which may extend to twc hundred rupees.

By Order,

H. V. RAMASVAMI,

Secretary to Government,

General Department.

No. D. 1142—C. S. 105-31-32, dated 5th September 1933.
